THE BIG ONE

VANCOUVER

Eastside Cultural Crawl
For three days a year, the craftsmen and women of Vancouver's arty Eastside open their doors to the general public. Onlookers sneak a rare glimpse of painters, weavers, furniture makers and jewellers at work in the intimacy of their own studios.

Stay at... the St Regis Hotel. After a complete renovation this heritage property is a sophisticated and well-priced option in a great location.

Eat at...
Jostle for a place at the Salt Tasting Room for charcuterie and artisanal cheese, washed down with something chosen from a great list of sherries, and local beers and wine.

Don't forget...
your walking shoes – there are over 300 artists to visit in 60 studios!
